Pleasant View City Title 13 – Public Services

Chapter 13.16 – Secondary Water

- 13.16.010 Connection to Secondary Water System. It is unlawful for the owner of any residential or agricultural property, which has access to a secondary water system for irrigation of such property, to fail to connect to such secondary water system, after the 25th day of August, 1992; provided, however, that any premises for which application has been made to the management of any available secondary water system for connection, and necessary fees paid, before the 25th day of September, 1992, will be allowed ninety additional days after the 25th day of September, 1992, within which to complete such connection. (Ord 92-10, 8/25/92)
- 13.16.020 Prohibited Irrigation Systems. It is unlawful for any person to install, construct or use any irrigation system which is so constructed that water may pass from secondary water system into any culinary water pipe within the corporate limits of the city. (Ord 92-10, 8/25/92)
- 13.16.030 Use of Culinary Water for Irrigation Prohibited. It is unlawful for any person, whether owner or occupant, of any residential or agricultural property, which can be served by secondary water system to use culinary water from the city water works for the purpose of irrigating any yard, garden or lawn, after the 25th day of August, 1992; provided, however, that if application for water connection has been made to the management of any available secondary water system, for connection, and the necessary fees paid, before the 25th day of September, 1992, that this section will not be applicable to use of culinary water on such premises pending completion of installation of such connection to secondary water system before the 25th day of December, 1992. (Ord 92-10, 8/25/92)
- 13.16.040 Building Permits Issued. Building permits for individual lots, or lots in subdivisions will be given only when the lot has secondary water available to it. Previous agreements with the city of Pleasant View will be recognized as possible exceptions. (Ord 92-10, 8/25/92)
- 13.16.050 Violation Penalty. Any person violating any provision of this chapter is guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punishable as provided by law. (Ord 92-10, 8/25/92)
